AND, FINALLY, EXCUSES WE DON'T WANT TO HEAR...

1. "You didn't ask me if I had child support, a new job, another bank account, etc."
2. "I wasn't told I had to report any changes."
3. "I thought I told you about that..."
4. "I didn't think that income counted."
5. "I don't have a telephone, so I could not call you to ask a question."
6. "I don't have a printer, so I could not turn in the documents requested."
7. "I forgot to tell you that I got married, had a baby, got a job, am getting child support, etc."
8. I didn't think I had to report any changes until it was time for my yearly exam."
9. I thought the Department of Human Services told you about my change."
10. I felt sorry for my cousin (or whoever) and thought it would be okay for them to stay with me."
11. And, especially, any sentence that begins with, "I assumed..."

IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT YOU READ AND UNDERSTAND ALL DOCUMENTS PROVIDED TO YOU TODAY. FAILURE TO ASK QUESTIONS REGARDING THESE DOCUMENT INDICATES YOU UNDERSTAND.
